

GBENN Green Business
Engagement
National Network

Green Business Engagement National Network

Green Business Engagement National Network (GBENN)

Tricia Dinkel, A Better City (Boston)

June 9, 2015

History & Leadership

- A Better City convened summit in 2013
- Summit led to a bottom-up, volunteer-led effort started by local program staff to continue conversation
- Leadership Council meets monthly/bi-monthly and is currently facilitated by A Better City.
 - ▣ Additional representation from:
 - CA Green Business Program
 - Illinois Green Business Association
 - City and County of Denver
 - WSPPN
 - Center for EcoTechnology

Green Business Engagement National Network (GBENN)

Mission:

Facilitate sharing and relationship-building among green and/or sustainable business engagement programs across the U.S. in order to advance the national interests of such locally-focused approaches and spread effective practices.

Scope:

National thinking and collaborating, but local action and uniqueness.

Working Groups

□ Leadership Group

- Mihir Parikh (ABC, Boston), Jo Flemming (California Green Business Program), Donna Walden (WSPPN), Emily Backus (City of Denver), Daren Cheatham (ICLEI), Cassie Carroll (Illinois GBA), Ted Fuller (Center for EcoTechnology),

□ Webinar Working Group

- Develop topics, find speakers, and coordinate quarterly webinars
- To participate, email tdinkel@abettercity.org

□ Membership/Resources Working Group

- Stay abreast of resources and funding opportunities
- Continue to build upon the directory of green business engagement programs
- To participate, email tdinkel@abettercity.org

Looking to 2015

- Continue webinar series
- LinkedIn Discussion Group for idea exchange, program solutions, and resource guidance
- Funding opportunities
 - Staff
- Next Summit
 - Funding
- Develop GBENN Website

Get involved!

- Reach out to Tricia Dinkel tdinkel@abettercity.org
- Use the GBENN Logo on your website

